

AKAGERA KIDS' END OF FIRST TERM REPORT

The first term ended on December 22nd 2023. It had started on September 25th 2023, with 13 children. They are now 15 because Charite and Amina joined the program during the term.

All the children attended school, and their results are satisfactory. And their life conditions are generally good as remarkable hereafter:

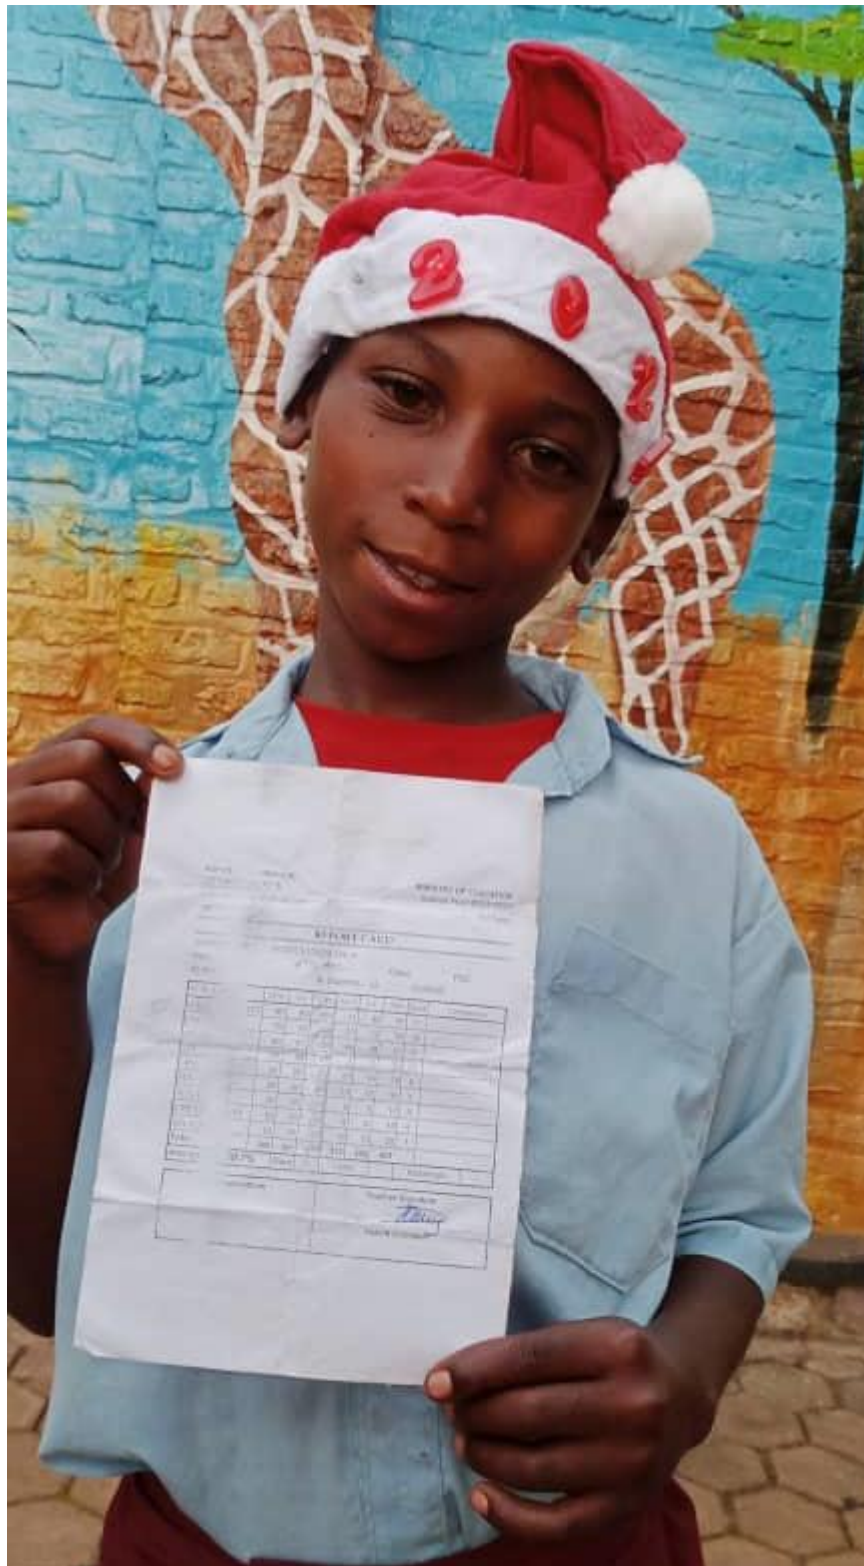

1. Fabrice Ndayishimiye

He was ranked the 1st of 43 Primary 2 students with 94.8%, up from the 3rd position last year. He helps Marcel and David with homework.

2. David Iradukunda

He was ranked the 9th of 32 Primary 2 students with 70.7%, up from the 47th position last year. He now lives at Fabrice's family because their parents ran away.

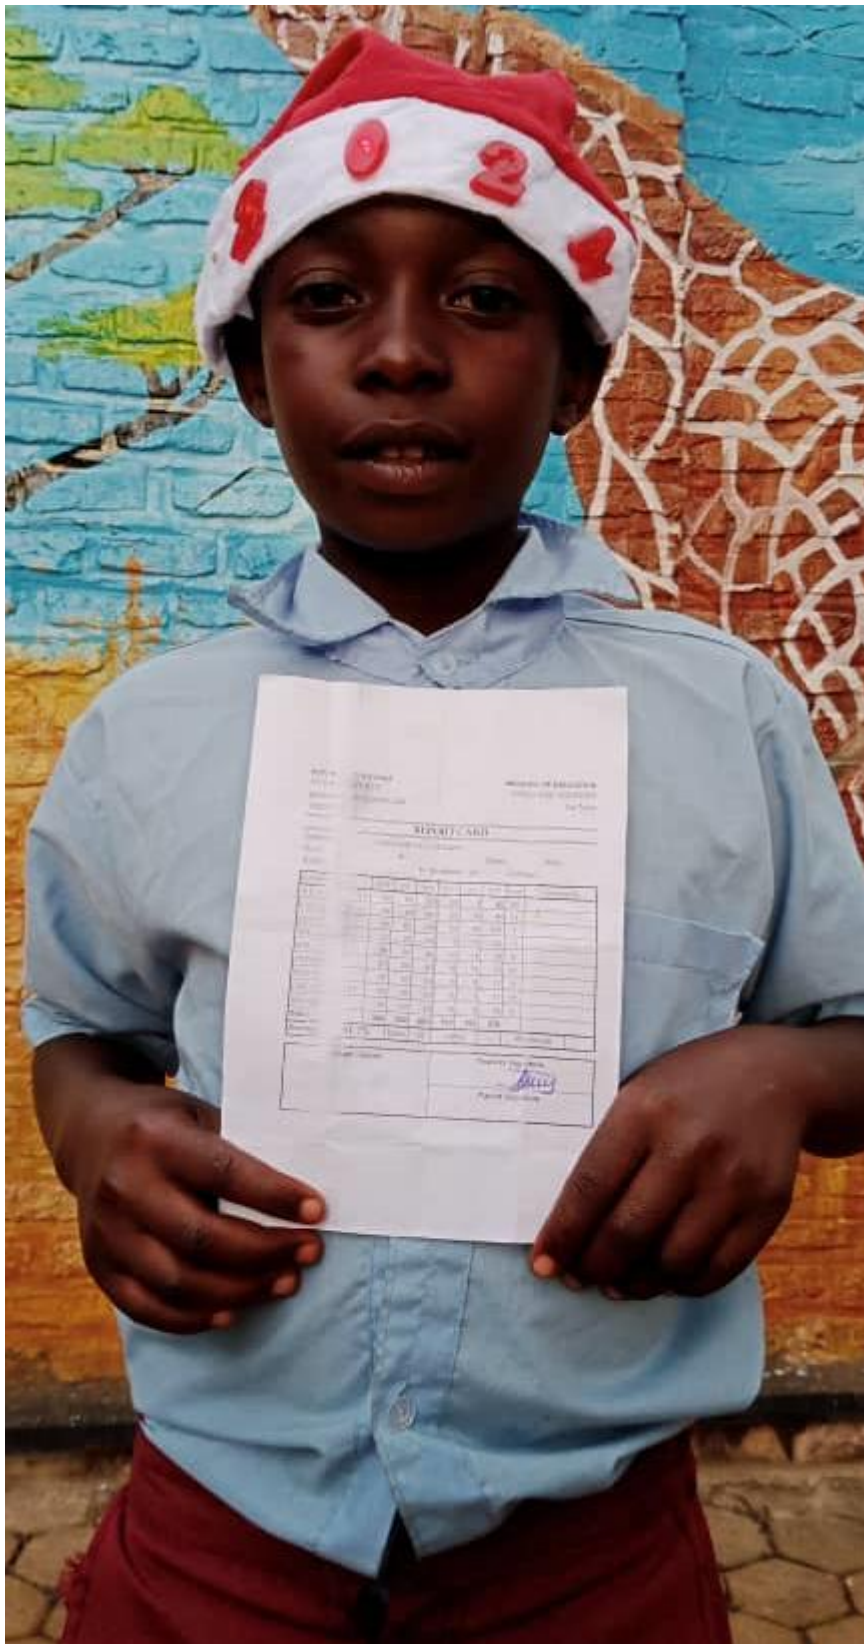

3. Marcel Maniraguha

He was ranked the 28th of 30 Primary 2 students with 38.6%, up from the 34th position last year. He now lives at Fabrice's family because their parents ran away. He looks psychologically affected much by his parents' behavior.

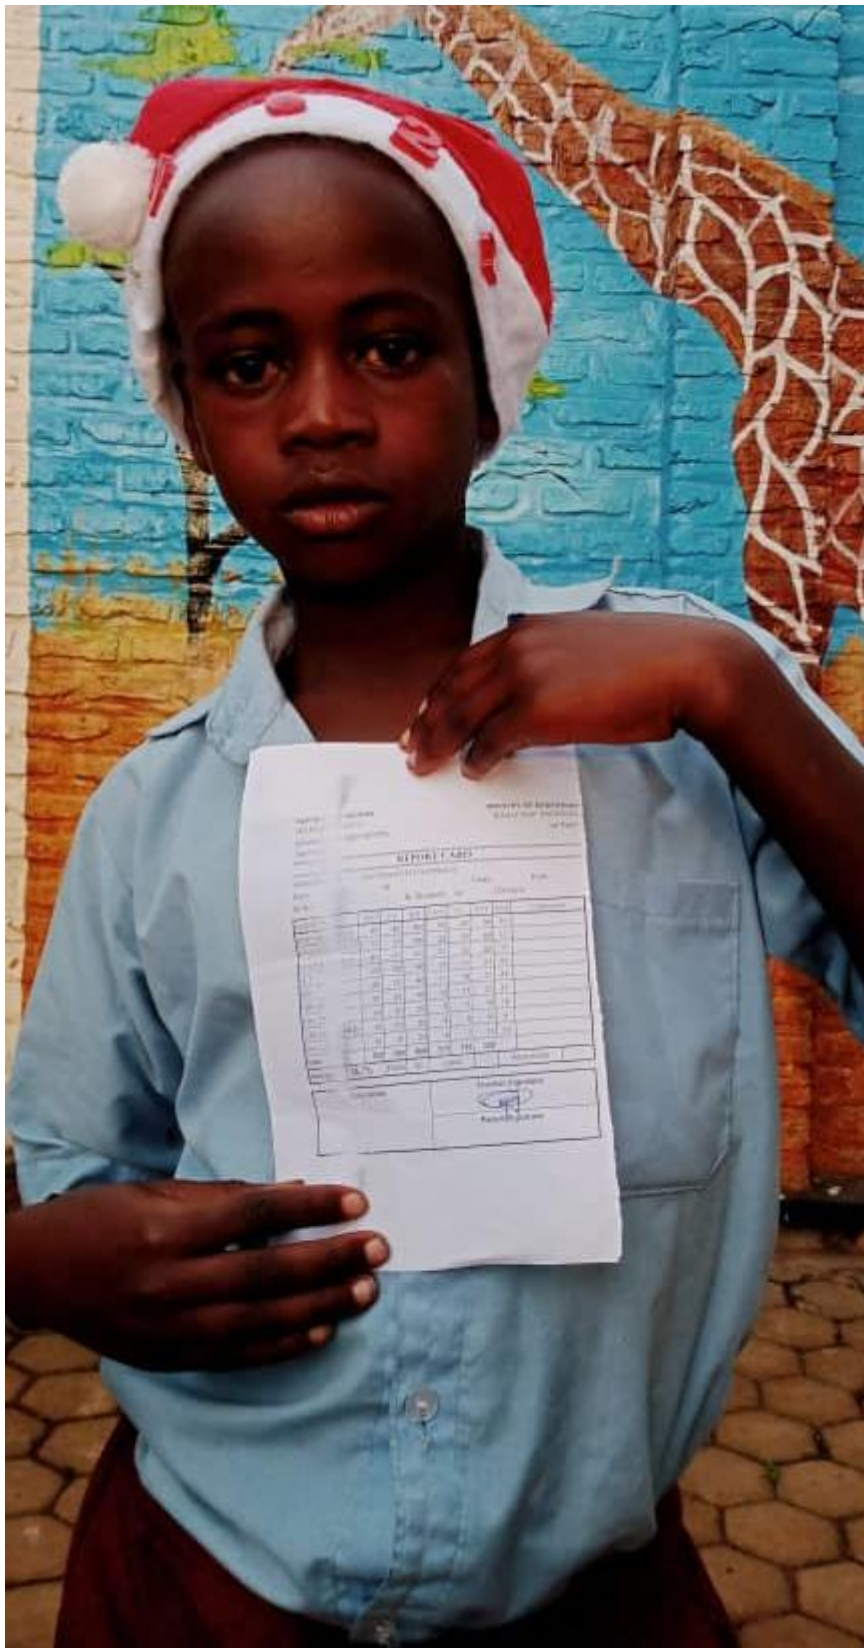

4. Jean Claude Niyonsenga

He was ranked the 14th of 32 Primary 2 students with 61.7%, up from the 53rd position last year. He did much effort.

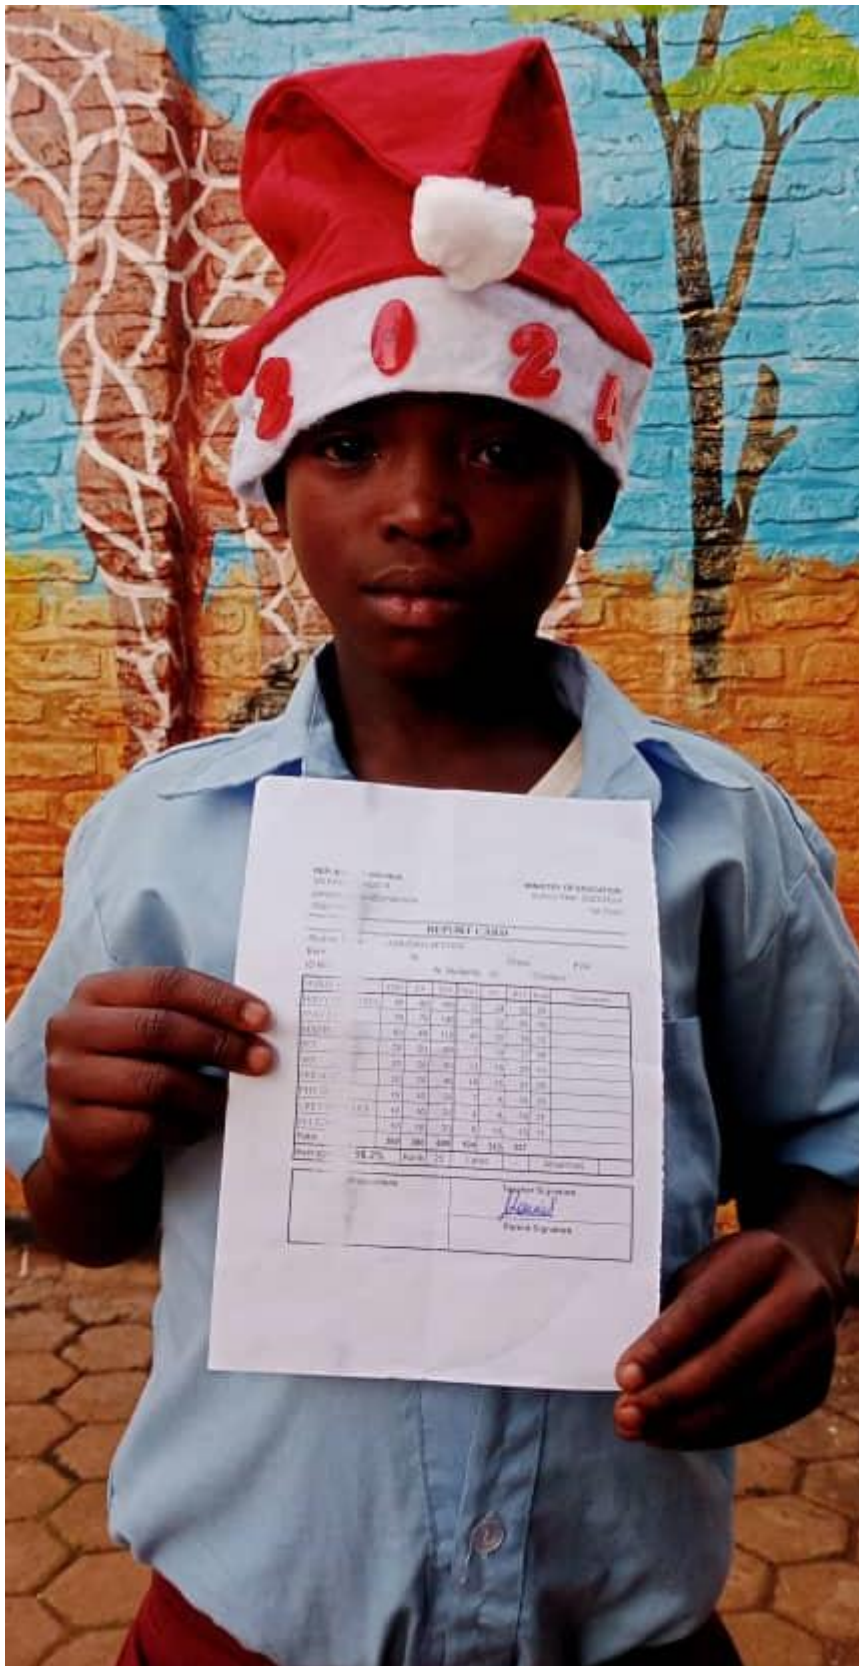

5. Pacifique Niyonshuti

He was ranked the 20th of 46 Primary 3 students with 54.7%, down from the 11th position last year. He has been much affected by his living conditions with his often-absent father.

6. Stiven Mizero

He was ranked the 20th of 32 Primary 2 students with 56.2%, down from the 14th position last year. He is recovering from his skin condition.

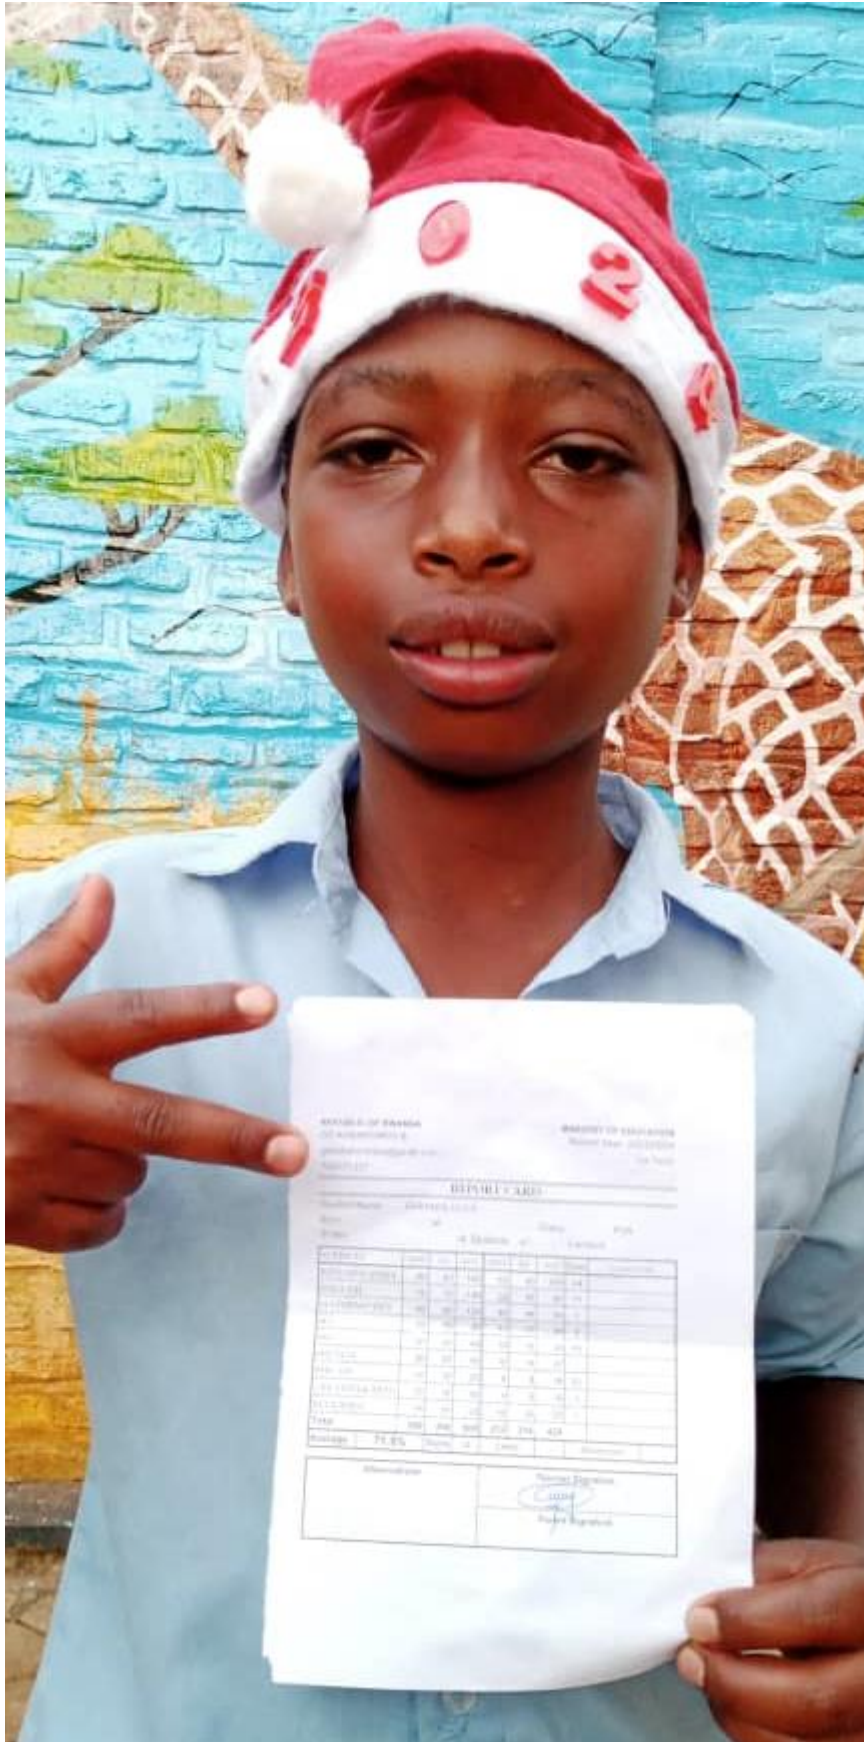

7. Lea Isimbi

She came the 4th of 32 Primary 2 students with 89.5%, up from the 6th position last year. She lives at Gloriose's family because his lone and often-absent father could not raise her.

8. Lucky Ishimwe

He was ranked the 14th of 47 Primary 3 students with 71.5%, up from the 27th position last year. He did some effort.

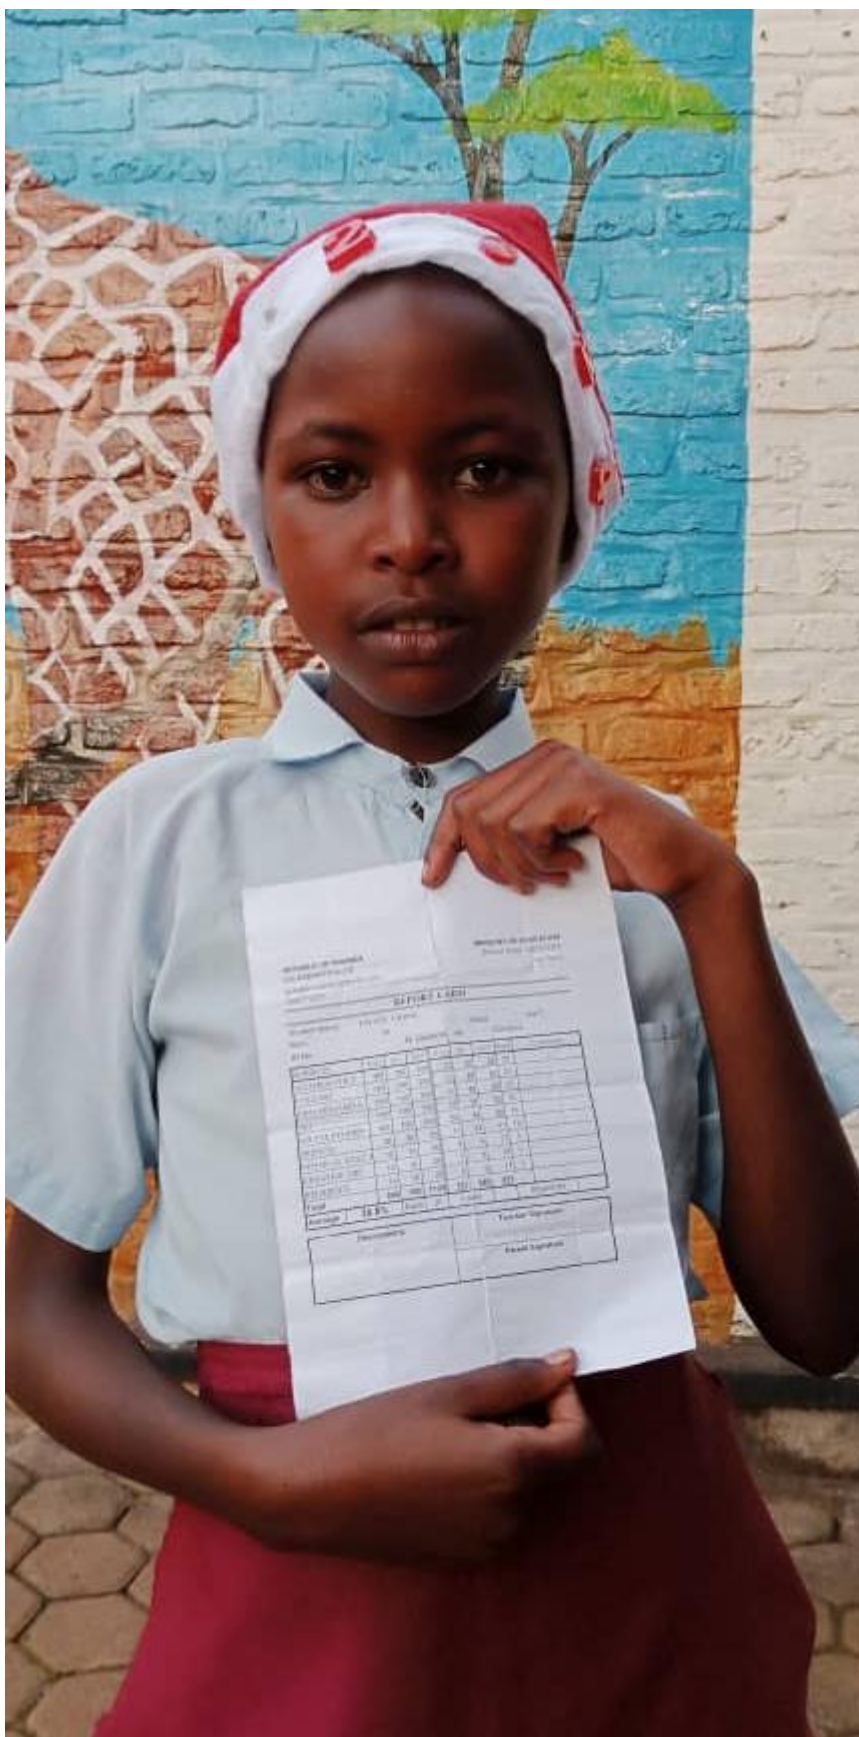

9. Gloriose Irakoze

She came the 6th of 50 Senior 2 students with 59.0%, up from the 45th position last year. She has done lot of effort, and helps Lea Isimbi with homework.

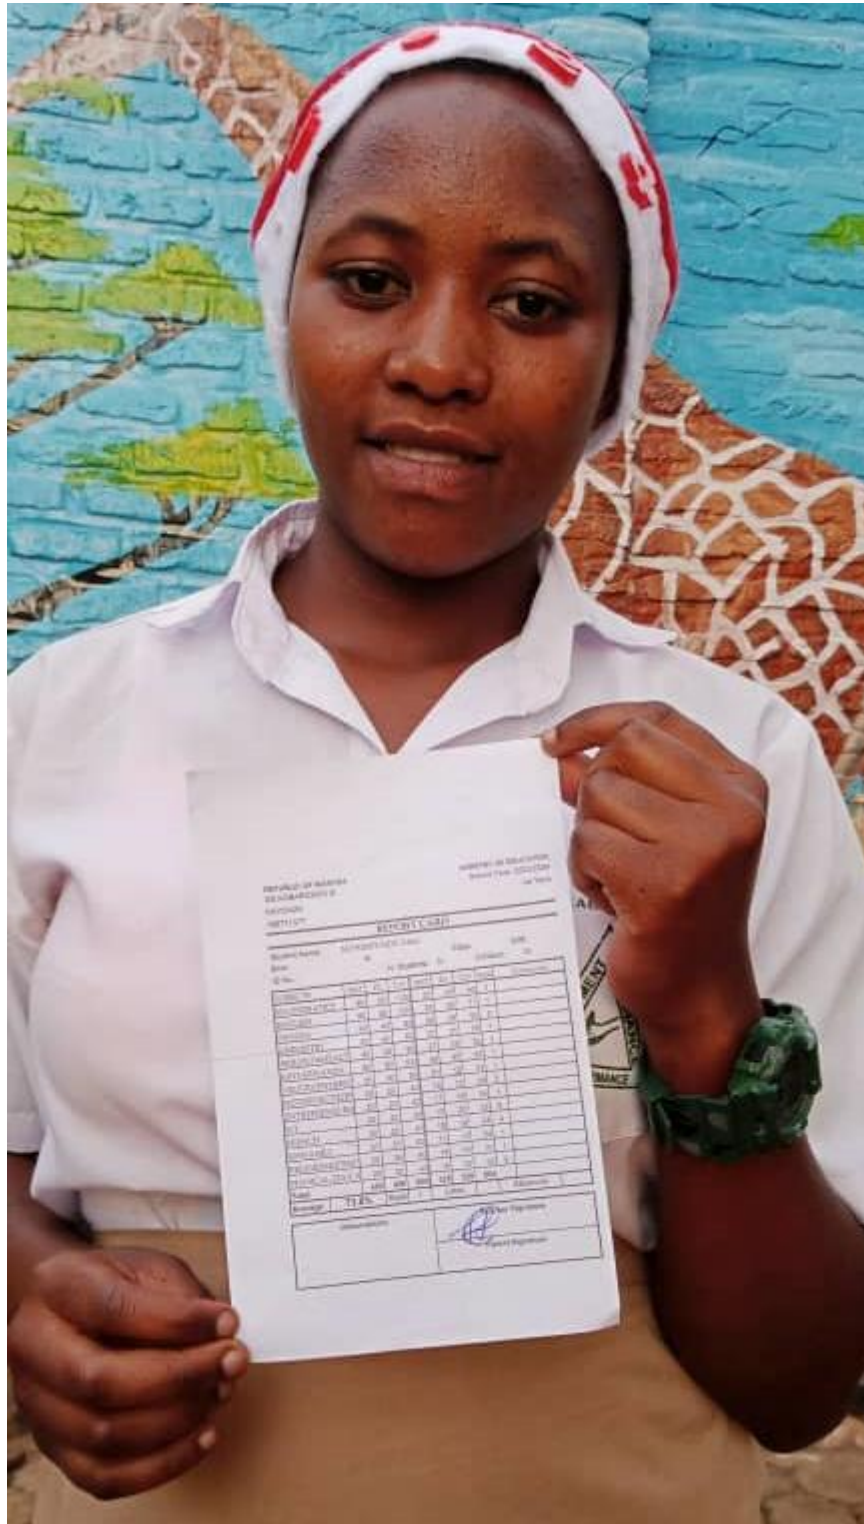

10. Charite Uwase

She came the 25th of 48 Primary 4 students with 38.5%, down from the 18th position last year. She has just joined the program.

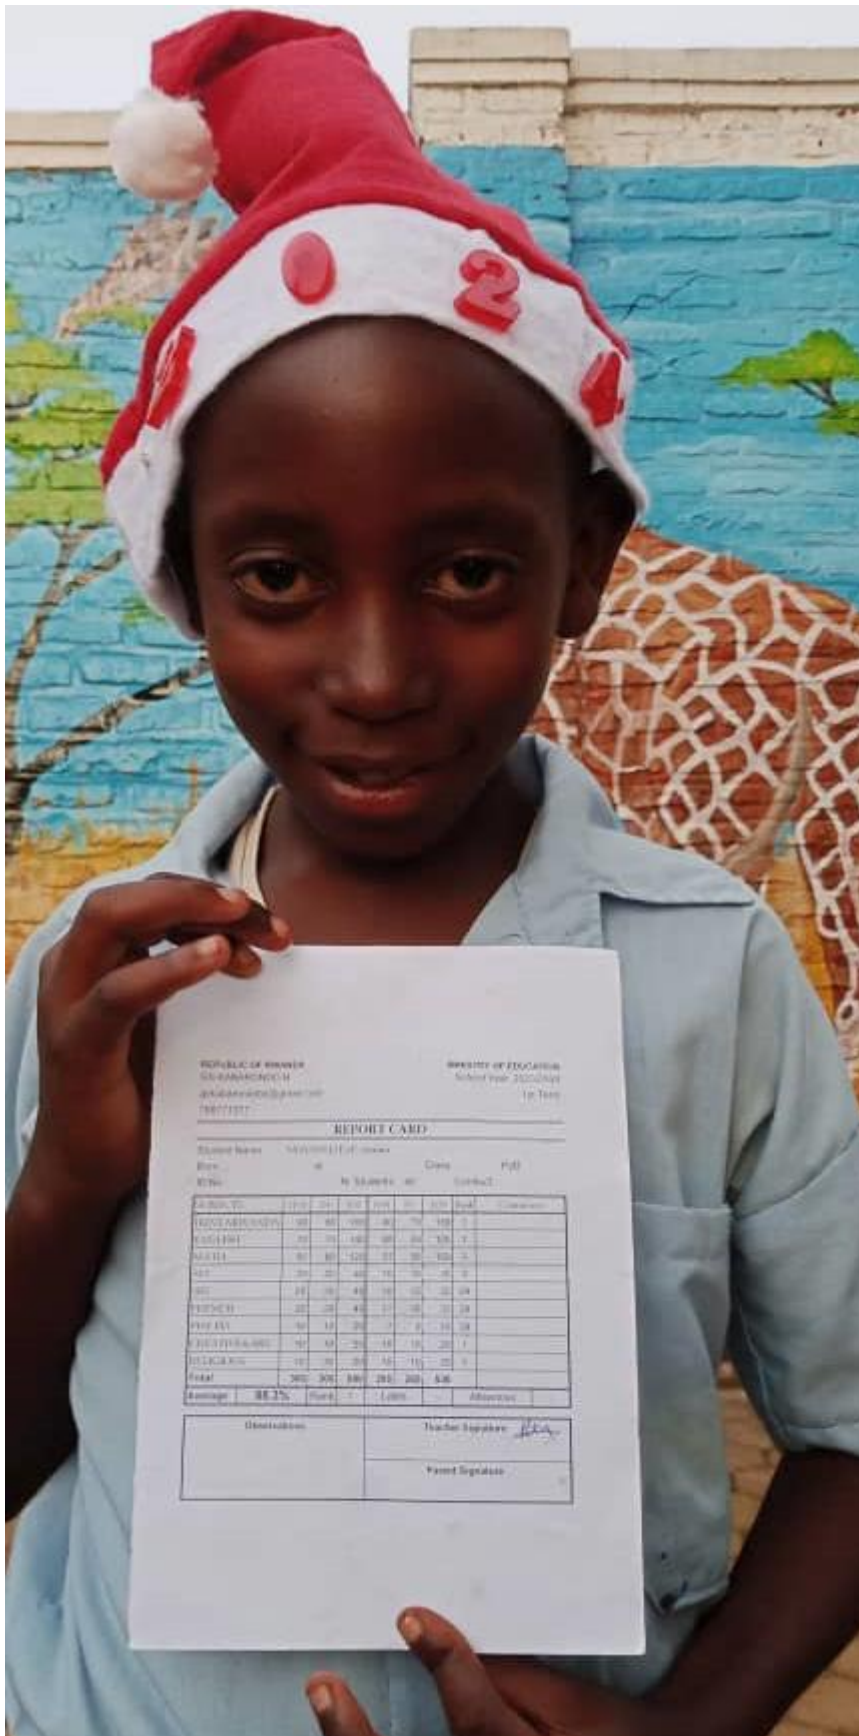

11. Aline Muhimpundu

She came the 1st of 31 Senior 3 students with 73.8%, same position as last year. She is a great pillar in the group.

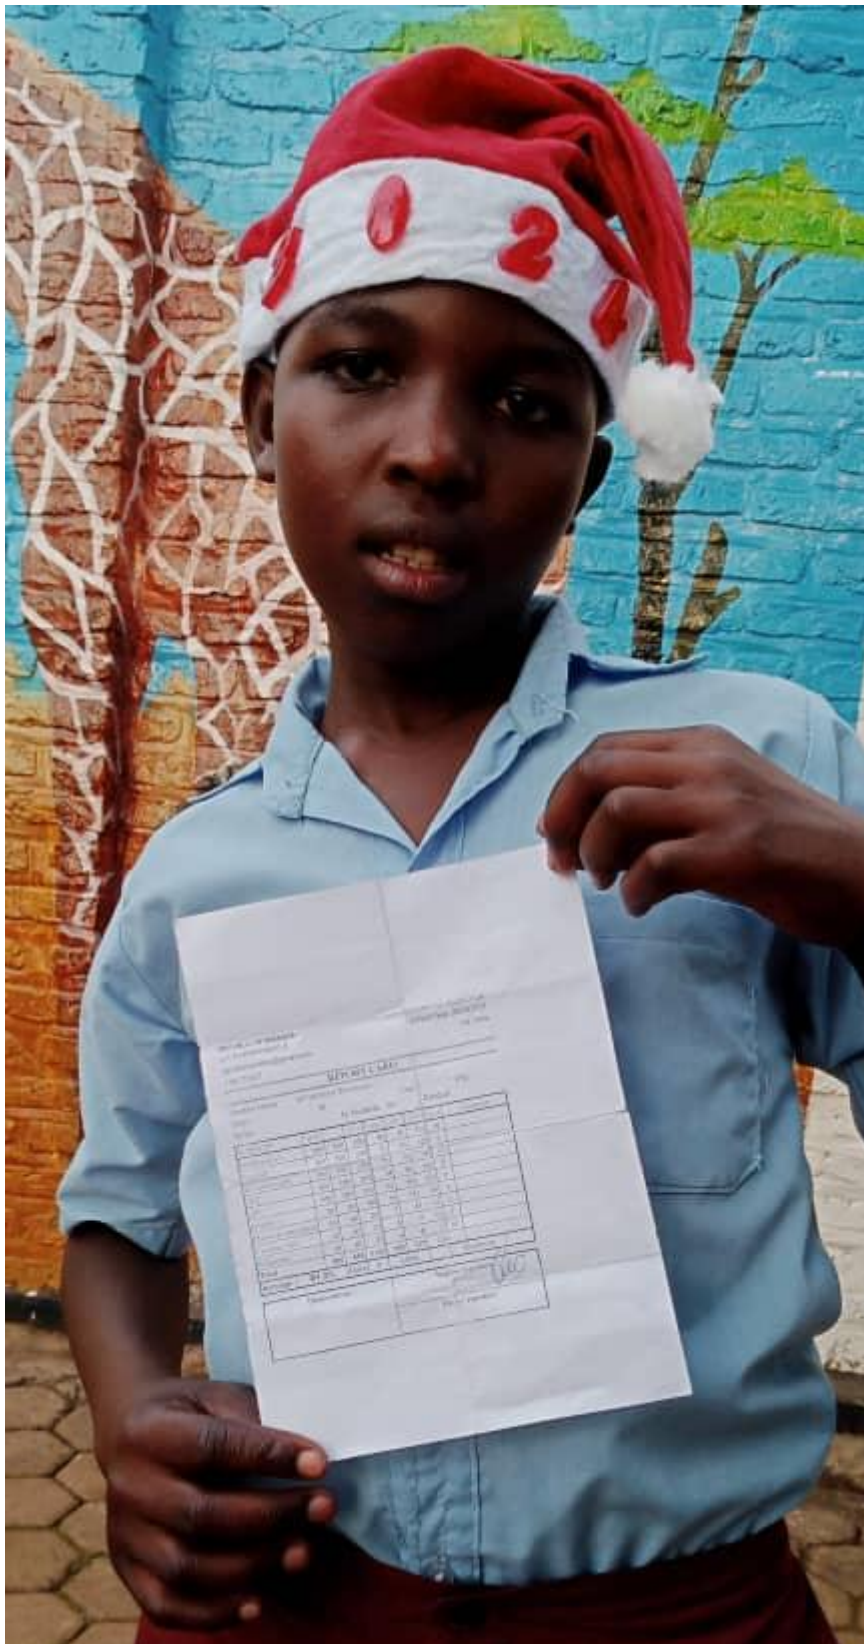

12. Amina Niyotwizeye

He came the 1st of 40 Primary 2 students with 88.3%, up from the 22nd position last year. He has done a lot of effort after joining the program.

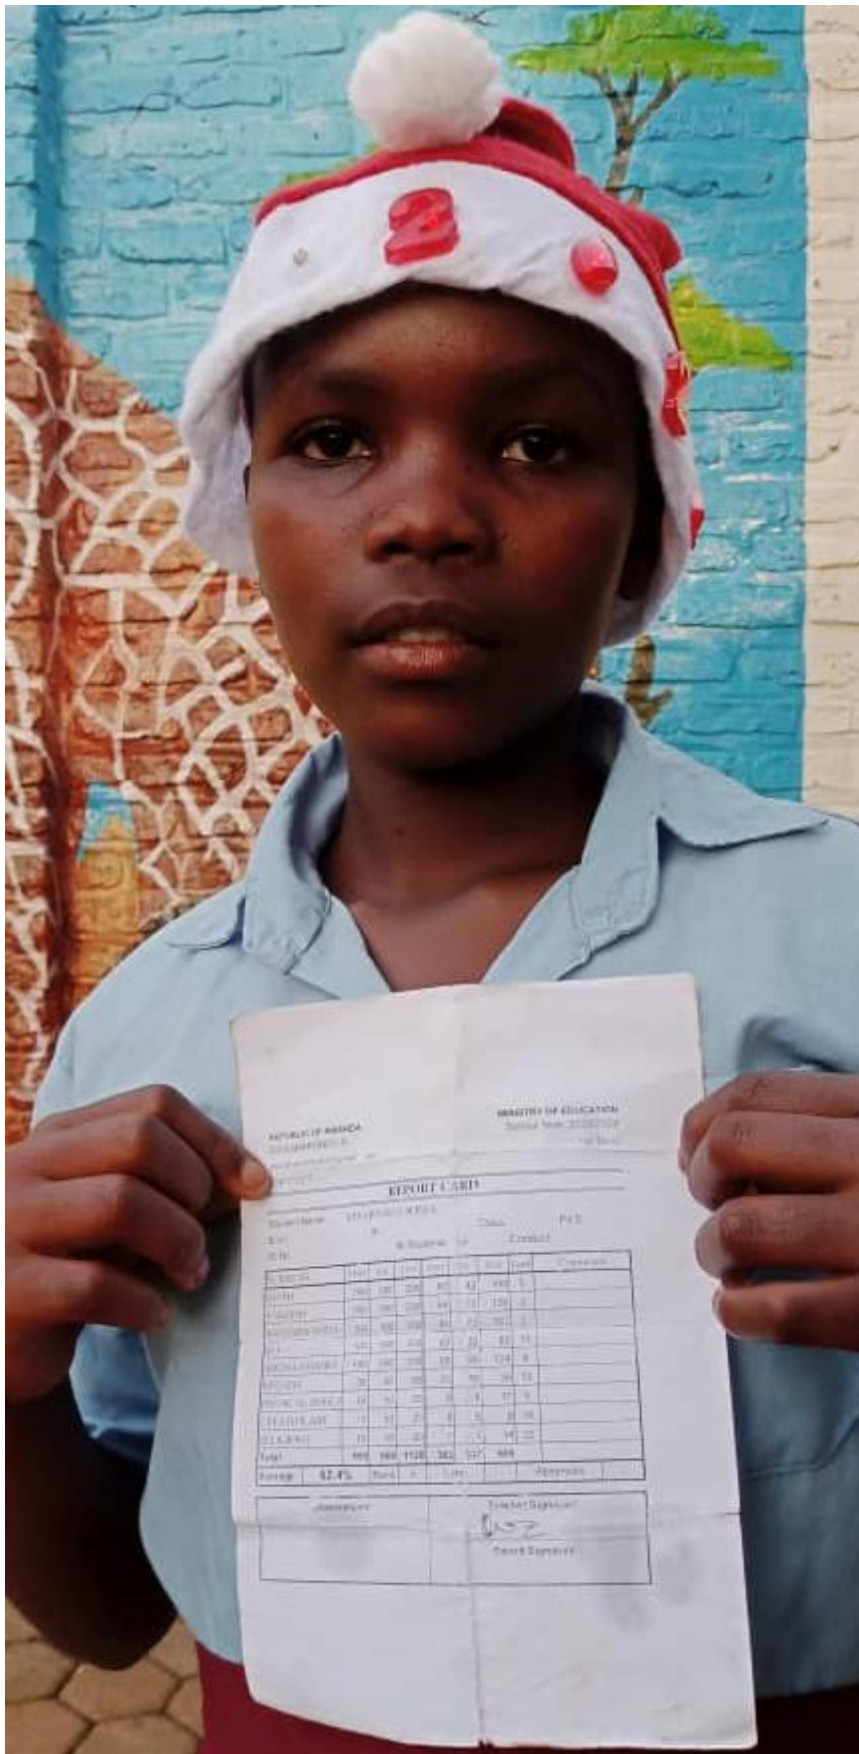

13. Theoneste Bizimana

He was ranked the 3rd of 50 Primary 5 students with 61.3%. He helps his brother with grocery every evening.

14. Sonia Uwajeneza

She was ranked the 4th of 50 Primary 4 students with 62.4%. She helps her aunt with chores every evening.

15. Aime Ishimwe

He came the 6th of 19 Senior 4 students with 67.9%, up from the 20th position last year. He has done a lot of effort.

The 2nd term is starting on January 8th 2024. We hereby renew our gratitude to all the donors and the whole Close to Africa crew. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
